

A 30-year-old man and two women were found dead in the house

Jimmy Smith, Curtis Conner, Edward Baker, Connie Pruitt, Scott Lee, Christopher Galloway, Tricia Weaver, Susan Martin, Adam Moore, Melvin King, Amanda Cruz

Zagazig University

According to the Philadelphia family, the man was responsible for the death of the two women. The two women were found dead in their beds at the home of their son, who is now at a treatment center in the Philadelphia area. The man was found to be dead in his home, but no one has been charged in this case, and the two women have been charged with first-degree murder. The two women have been charged with first-degree murder.

The man was a male and a female. The two women are both from the same family, and both reported to have been living with their two children in the house. The man and women were both in their late teens and early 20s. The victims were both in their early 20s, according to the family. The man is the son of a resident of the home. The other male resident was a resident of the home. This homicide is being investigated as a possible suicide. The family was informed about the death of the two women in the late morning hours of April 27, 2012 by a man at the home of their son. The family was also informed about the death of the two women in the late evening hours of April 27, 2012 by a man at their home. The man was found to be dead in his home, but no one has been charged in this case. The men were both in their late teens and early 20s. The victims were both in their early 20s, according to the family. The man was a male and a female. The men were both in their late teens and early 20s. The victims were both in their early 20s, according to the family. The man was found dead in his home, but no one has been charged in this case. The family was informed about the murder of the two women in the late evening hours of April 27, 2012 by a man at their home. The family was also informed about the death of the two women in the late evening hours of April 27, 2012 by a man at their home. The man was found dead in his home, but no one has been charged in this case. The family was informed about the death of the two women in the late evening hours of April 27, 2012 by a man at their home. The man was found dead in his home, but no one has been charged in this case. The deaths of the women are being investigated as a possible suicide. The 25-year-old man and 35-year-old woman were found dead in their home on April 27, 2012. The family was informed about the death of the two women in their late teens and early 20s. The patients were both in their late teens, according to the family. The men were both in their late teens, according to the family. The man was found dead in his home, but no one has been charged in this case. The family was informed about the death of the two women in their late teens and early 20s. The patients were both in their late teens and early 20s, according to the family. The men were both in their late teens, according to the family. The man was found dead in his home, but no one has been charged in this case. The family was informed about the death of the two women in their late teens and early 20s. The patients were both in their late teens and early 20s, according to the family. The men were both in their late teens, according to the family. The man was found dead in his home, but no one has been charged in this case. The family was informed about the death of the two women in their late teens and early 20s. The patients were both in their late teens and early 20s, according to the family. The men were both in their late teens, according to the family. The man was found dead in his home, but no one has been charged in this case. The family is still investigating the death. The family is still investigating the death. The 25-year-old man and 35-year-old woman were found dead in their homes on April 27, 2012. The family was informed about the death of the two women in their late teens and early 20s. The patients were both in their late teens, according to the family. The men were both in their late teens, according to the family. The men were both in their late teens, according to the family. The man was found dead in his home, but no one has been charged in this case. The family is still investigating the death. The 25-year-old man and 35-year-old woman were found dead in their homes on April 27, 2012. The family was informed about the death of the two women in their late teens and early 20s. The patients were both in their late teens,