(BEGIN VIDEO CLIP) MARTIN: This is a very important moment to be able to take a step back and try to understand the sequence. (END VIDEO CLIP) MARTIN: The sequence of events I think, that are very important in this regard, I don't want to be missing out on that. This was a very important moment. The sequence of events, this is the moment of the collapse of the whole system, this was the moment of the collapse of the whole system, and it was the moment of the collapse of the entire system, I mean, the moment of the collapse of the whole system, and it was the moment of the collapse of the entire system, and that was the moment of the collapse of the whole system, which is the moment of the collapse of the whole system. MARTIN: We know that the collapse of the whole system was the moment the collapse of the whole system was the moment the collapse of the whole system was the moment the collapse of the whole system was the moment the collapse of the whole system was the moment the collapse of the whole system was the moment the collapse of the whole system was the moment the collapse of the whole system was the moment the collapse of the whole system was the moment the collapse of the whole system was the moment the collapse of the whole system was the moment the collapse of the whole system was the moment the collapse of the whole system was the moment the collapse of the whole system was the moment the collapse of the whole system was the moment the collapse of the whole system was the moment the collapse of the whole system was the moment the collapse of the whole system was the moment the collapse of the whole system was the moment the collapse
